NEW ORLEANS HOST TO NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS, OCTOBER 17-20

Thousands to Unite To Pay Homage to Eucharistic Lord
In Five-Day Celebration.

New Orleans will be the host to Eighth National Eucharistic Congress to be held from October 17 to 20, according to the announcements. A tremendous crowd is expected to attend. People from all over the country including Postmaster General James A. Farley, who is to represent President Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be on hand for the dedication, and the civic reception to be held October 17, for Cardinal Mundelein and other visiting dignitaries.

A huge altar has been erected in the City Park Stadium, where they expect to take care of 100,000 visitors and more than 100,000 New Orleans delegates. Lighting will be provided by six huge towers more than 100 feet high. Each of the towers will contain 15 lights, each of 1500-watt power. To illuminate the parking area five 1000-watt lights will be erected. In addition, there are 100 lamps of 200-watt power each, to illuminate the ramps leading to the seats.

The Congress will be formally opened Tuesday morning by the Cardinal Legate. Archbishop Mooney of Detroit will deliver the sermon for the Solemn Pontifical Mass at City Park Stadium. The general assembly Tuesday night at the park will be presided over by Cardinal Mundelein with Dr. Louis Morehead, K. S. G., of Chicago. The Eucharistic procession will start at the Sacred Heart church on Canal street and end at the City Park Stadium. Because of the large crowd the National Guard will be present to keep the people together.

The beautiful altar that is being finished at present is said to be one of the most beautiful ever to be seen at such a congress. The tall iron frame work Balachino is almost completed. Donations from the citizens and other sources have made the Congress possible.

Girl Scout News

A group of Girl Scouts were entertained by Mr. C. J. Gordon on his yacht the afternoon of September 30. The scouts were namely Rose Ann Moore, Josie Rita Olson, Anne Weston, Lillian Olson and Captain Mrs. J. B. Goldman. The ride was enjoyed immensely.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 1 welcome two new lieutenants, Miss Clara Eley and Miss Loretta Smith, who will occupy the office formerly held by Miss Regina Blaize. Miss Blaize, who has served as an able and active lieutenant for the last few years, was forced to resign this year because of reasons over which she had no control.

Meetings of Troop 1 have been changed from Friday to Wednesday of each week. The change was made so that the scout meetings would not interfere with other activities. Troop II will continue to meet on Friday.

The girl scouts, as a whole, wish to thank Miss Ames for her kindness and generosity in giving all Scout members free admission into the theater every Tuesday night. Miss Ames has given this privilege to the scouts for a number of years and they deeply appreciate it.

AMERICAN RED CROSS IN FINAL

Round-Up — Lack Only 40
Of Quota—Drive Going Over Big.

The Enrollment for the National Red Cross 1938 Membership Drive is going over in a big way. Only 40 is lacking in having the quota of 300 new members. As your county chairman for the year's effort may I have your cooperation in these last moments, that we may place Hancock County at the top with a full quota, asks Rev. Andrew J. Boyles, chairman.

If you are a teacher or house to house worker and have not reported, as yet, please complete your task and report to me not later than Saturday, October 15, that I may make my report of the Enrollment Campaign to headquarters.

If you have not enrolled this October, or if the worker has missed you for any reason, please send by mail or some other means one dollar for your membership to Mr. Geo. R. Rea or to me not later than Saturday, Oct. 15.

Maybe you have enrolled one member of your family and rather than see our county fall short you could strain a nerve and enroll one more. Well whatever it takes let's do that. What you say?

I am depending on you. Sincerely your chairman for 1938 Membership Campaign—Andrew J. Boyles.

NATIONAL FIRE LOSS INCREASES YEARLY REPORTS REVEAL.

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 9 to 15th Being Observed—Do Your Part.

This is fire prevention week, Oct. 9-15. Every week should be fire prevention week. The newspapers carry more and more fire losses every day. Most people do not realize it, but fire losses are going up every month, and more and more property and lives are being needlessly sacrificed to the fire demon.

Fire is no respecter of persons—it hits the rich and the poor,—it strikes the farmer and city dweller and it always hits when least expected.

Every twenty-four hours in the United States fire destroys at least 931 dwellings, 12 hotels, 4 warehouses, 5 school houses, 5 churches, 6 department stores, 2 theaters, 8 public garages, 3 printing plants, 3 dry goods stores and every twenty minutes fire destroys one human life.

What terrible figures these are, actual fire facts that no one can misunderstand, and this terrible loss is going on every twenty-four hours. How can you expect to escape fire indefinitely with a National fire loss of more than $5,000,000 every year?

S. S. C. ALUMNI TO GATHER SUNDAY ON HOMECOMING DAY

Two Thousand Fans Expected to Witness Friendly
Clash of Rocks and Aloysius Crusaders.

Homecoming, one of the outstanding events in the football season, is marked on the calendar for Sunday, October 16. This is the day which is anticipated with much anxiety by the students and Alumni of St. Stanislaus, and the day in which they all gather at their Old Alma Mater to recall the good long years of the past which they spent so happily.

The team that has been chosen to engage in the annual friendly clash with the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chow is St. Aloysius of New Orleans. Both teams are popular, and a large crowd of Alumni and parents will gather to see the most important feature in the program of the day, Little if any is known about St. Aloysius strength against St. Stanislaus since the two teams have not met in the field for the past two years. This is the first time that the Rockachaws will meet Aloysius in a Homecoming affair since 1927. They have been playing against Commy High of New Orleans.

Brother Peter, president of St. Stanislaus has arranged a special program for the event. As he expressed it, "It is the best program we've had in a long time." So you see, you can expect something new and more interesting than the programs of the past. Everything has been changed, to fill the day with more excitement and fun than usual.

Brother Peter also said that he was expecting a crowd of about two thousand fans. He encouraged the students to invite all their parents to attend, and letters of invitation will be mailed to them.

Father Costello, who had a very enthusiastic ovation, is home on holidays in aid of the local Mullagh. He competed as a quarter-miler at sports in Dublin, Navan, Killycuan, Longford, Duboyne, Belturbet, Mullagh, etc., and out of 40 sports meetings he won no less than 79 first prizes and 29 seconds. He was also a footballer of more than ordinary ability and is to-day a keen follower of the G. A. A. His lecture on Sunday was most impressive.

ECONOMIC PARLEY FOR PEACE.

SOMEDAY, in the not very distant future, if the nations of the world are really serious in their efforts to avoid future warfare, there will be an international economic conference.

As Senator Burke, of Nebraska, says, "If the nations of the world can get together on economic problems, it will go a long way towards postponing indefinitely the possibility of a general world conflict."

However, the people of the United States should realize that an international economic conference would not be very satisfactory unless the United States participated. This kind of cooperation with other nations ought to be possible without obligating the United States or getting us involved in the quarrels of other nations.

Anyway, so far as we are concerned, we think it would be a good thing for the United States to participate in such a conference with other nations. The solution of some of the present economic problems that now afflict many nations, will do more than anything else to alleviate conditions that give rise to dictatorships and to revolutions. If we really want peace in the world, we must do something to make peace profitable and effective.

Night driving, according to experts, is more dangerous than day driving. Especially if done with one hand!

SALMON USE LADDERS.

WHEN the Bonneville Dam was projected in the Columbia river there were many fears that the structure would prevent the salmon from ascending the river and thus end the important industry that has been developed around the royal chinook fish.

It seems, however, that such fears were groundless. Reports from the dam-site are that the fish are using the "ladders" built around the dam in great numbers and reaching the upper levels without suffering the injuries that occurred when they battered themselves up the rapids.

This is good news. As most readers know the salmon fish return to the river where they were born to spawn and if the run of the salmon up-stream had been blocked by the dam the salmon industry of the Columbia river would have been seriously injured.

It won't be long before some politician comes along with a pension plan for everybody; he'll get all the votes.

1,206,000 SEEDLINGS SOLD.

ORDERS for 1,206,000 forest tree seedlings grown by Nurseryman Richard C. Allen at the University State Forest Nursery have been received by the Mississippi Forestry Commission, state Hon. Fred Merrill, state forester. Longleaf pine seedlings are reported sold out and black locust seedlings are going rapidly through orders placed by county agricultural agents and extension forester J. B. Toler, State College, Mississippi.

Mr. Merrill also states that 12 hundred miles of fire breaks are to be plowed in South Mississippi protection counties before January 1939. A 3,800 pound plow has been unloaded at Ocean Springs and has started to work behind a 50-horse power crawler tractor. The counties affected are Jackson, Harrison, Hancock, Stone and George.

Growing old gracefully is an art which should attract people after they reach forty-five or fifty.

AID FOR NEEDY BLIND.

ACCORDING to W. F. Bond, commissioner of State Department of Public Welfare, the State of Mississippi is now offering the following assistance to the needy blind of the state:

1. An opportunity to finish a standard high school course at the school for the blind located in Jackson. Anyone interested should write to Superintendent of the school for the blind, Dr. Frank Carr, Jackson, Mississippi.

2. Monthly checks from the state department of public welfare will be sent to the needy blind of the state who have no first relatives able to give them the necessities of life. For information write the county welfare agent of the county in which you reside.

Now that war has been averted in Europe, it might be a good idea for American hunters to be careful.

Business news remains good in this country. Stock prices have been going up again, following a series of breaks caused by war scares. The analysts look for continued, gradual improvements for the balance of the year at least. All industry, with no major exceptions, seems to be improving. Orders are up and inventories down. Basic industries are operating on accelerated production schedules. So far as anyone knows, the President has no legislative bombshells in mind to present to the next Congress, and this is a highly encouraging factor to business.

The average businessman would enjoy this fine fall weather if he was not so busy as not to have time to enjoy it.

HIGHWAY TEST LABORATORY.

SPEAKING of highways in Mississippi, one of the least known divisions of the State Highway Department, is perhaps the most important division, and that is the testing laboratory, which is located in the rear of the fair grounds in Jackson, in charge of H. O. Thompson, testing engineer. It is very probable that few people in Mississippi know of the existence of this laboratory, which plays such an important part in the construction of the highways in our state. In this laboratory all materials going into Mississippi highways are tested and protection is given against unsuitable materials. The mere fact that their materials must undergo a rigid test in this laboratory, impels manufacturers to be sure that each shipment of cement, asphalt, steel, gravel, sand, paint or whatever kind of materials specified, shall be of a quality that will meet the test. All materials failing to meet the prescribed tests are promptly rejected, causing considerable loss to the manufacturer, but at the same time protecting the taxpayers who are furnishing the money for the construction of highways in Mississippi. Another function of the testing laboratory is the investigation of new sources of local materials which would be suitable for road construction and maintenance, and which would leave a larger percentage of the money for road materials in the state. The next time you visit Jackson make a trip to the laboratory of the State Highway Department—it will be worth your time to do so, for it will give you a glimpse of highway construction in this state that you are unfamiliar with.

HANCOCK COUNTY GOES TO SCHOOL.

THE present school season offers the young people of Hancock County an opportunity to acquire a training that has proved its value by all the experience of the race.

Pupils of schools in this county should not expect "education" to work miracles. It does not. The miracle is the result of the effort of the pupil, who gains in power and efficiency by the process of learning what the schools teach.

Education is a product of intelligence and experience, and pupils have before them the prospect of increasing their intelligence by diligent application to their studies. They should not forget that the facts and principles which they master, and make their own, serve the mind as a hammer serves a carpenter.

Intelligence helps mankind to do anything better. It does not make men or women better in the moral sense, necessarily, although it often shows them how foolish some acts are. Behind the intelligence that one acquires there is a guiding spirit within the individual, which determines whether the intelligence-tool is wisely used.

The Sea Coast Echo urges all pupils in this community to persevere in their school work with the determination to take advantage of the opportunity that is there. Our public schools are great assets to our democratic people, affording children chances that have not always belonged to all in equal proportion.

HIGHWAY SAFETY PATROL.

MAJOR T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety, in an article in the September issue of Mississippi Highways, says: "Mississippi, having borne the brunt of severe criticism for many long years due to the conspicuous absence of highways suitable for all weather travel, need suffer the humiliation no longer. Although having suffered several years longer than other states, there has been sufficient reward in the benefits derived from the experiences and mistakes of the leaders in road construction."

With the completion of the trunk highways, in Mississippi, there immediately became evident another great need, the uniform safety thereon. With this outstanding need foremost in the minds of the legislative bodies an Act was passed during the regular session of 1938 which provided for uniformity in the use of highways. There were also provisions for the organization of a highway safety patrol. It is certainly to be hoped that the organization which is being so carefully molded to safeguard the traveling public will become an outstanding factor in safety. In this connection Commissioner Birdsong has issued an 8-page hand book to assist drivers, that is free for the asking. The book contains facts and rules governing the uses of the highways that all drivers should know. Either write to Major T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner Highway Safety Patrol, Jackson, Mississippi, or request one from any member of the Highway Patrol you meet on the highways.

MORE DANGER OF FIRE IN WINTER.

AS this is fire prevention week it necessarily becomes proper to call to the attention of our readers the importance of being more careful especially at this time of the year. A graph prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters shows that fire losses usually increase at an alarming rate from September to December. "The reason for this is obvious," states the board. "People start their stoves and furnaces as soon as cool weather arrives; in many cases neglecting to check over their heating plants. As a result, there is an epidemic of serious fires from defective equipment."

Soot-loaded chimneys are a major hazard. It is important to check up on chimneys for cracks, and holes, and to clean the flues every year. Flue linings are essential for safety.

Also, sagging, rusted smoke pipes cause trouble. Sparks may fly out and start a fire. Don't take this chance! Install a new pipe a safe distance from combustibles.

Another cause is overheated stoves and furnaces, the result of poor maintenance and faulty operation. If you don't get as much warmth as you should, the heater is probably out of order. You should consult a heating expert. Never "force" the fire in cold weather. Keep your heating plant clean and in good repair. Use metal containers for hot ashes.

For safety's sake check your heating equipment now, before real cold weather sets in.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

WHY HUNTERS SHOULD BE CAREFUL.

(West Point Times-Leader)

NOW that the hunting season is here, it is pertinent to remind hunters that among the creatures which will be killed during the next several weeks are hunters themselves. The American Red Cross is authority for the statement that each year more than 2,000 hunters are killed in the United States as the result of carelessness. Sixty of these deaths, it was found, were the result of self-inflicted wounds, while most of the rest came from other hunters. Of the 60 self-inflicted fatal wounds, 16 occurred when hunters slipped, stumbled or fell, while 13 deaths came as the result of climbing over or thru fences with a gun carried muzzle first. Ten of the 133 were killed as they picked up their loaded guns. Others died as a result of dragging a gun through underbrush.

In the light of these statistics it would be well for every hunter before he goes into the woods to consider as part of his equipment these safety suggestions, issued by the Red Cross:

1. Don't pull a gun carelessly from an automobile.
2. Remove shells from gun before crawling through fence.
3. Don't carry your gun cocked; be sure the safety catch is in place.
5. Never point your gun at anyone in fun; carry it with the muzzle pointed toward the ground.
6. When out with inexperienced

THE GROWTH OF CHRISTIANITY

(West Point Times-Leader)

EVERY now and then you hear somebody discussing the decline of the Church in America. But there is little basis for such comment.

According to the Christian Herald, church membership last year reached a new record total of 63,898,094, which was a gain for the year of more than three-quarters of a million. Moreover, the ratio of church membership to total population has steadily increased, it is shown, increasing from a mere 19.9 per cent in 1880 to 49.9 per cent in 1937.

And in the realm of the spirit and faith, can there be any doubt that recognition of the elements which are common to all religions is growing? Even in a world of terror it is being even more widely recognized that good will, faith, charity, hope, justice, brotherhood are the greatest things in the world. Nor even now are we without signs that recognition of that fact is not all. In their various and conflicting ways men of all kinds and faiths are making exceptional efforts to give these ideals a deeper and wider effect.

inexperienced hunters don't deploy ahead of your companions.

7. Don't leave a gun where children can reach it.
8. Don't leave a loaded gun about the house.
9. Don't allow the muzzle to clog with mud.
10. Deer hunters should wear bright red caps or coats.

Five Million Dollar Forest Fire Loss Is Predicted for State

"One forest or grass fire will burn between October 1, 1938, and May 1, 1939, for every 1,000 acres of potential forest land in Mississippi," according to the prediction of State Forester Fred B. Merrill.

"Four million acres of burned area with forest reproduction killed or damaged, wild life cover and food gone or depleted and rapid water run-off and soil erosion augmented by exposed soil surfaces will be the result. Damages never will be estimated accurately because of the impossibility of measuring lost industries and payrolls, silt damages, lost revenue from sportsmen and the unknown support that these and other factors could give to local and state governments and the people who make them up, but by any conservative measure Mississippi will be the loser by at least $5,000,000," he says.

The state forester bases his predictions on the past twelve year records of the State Forestry Commission, and reports that the figures given are much less than half those found at the time the Commission was organized. Continuing he says, "Whether or not our state will take the loss this year is entirely with our people. Of the expected 20,000 fires, 19,800 will be started by persons in the state. Most people never start a fire during a lifetime, but a few people start many in a day. On September 27, 1938, our reports show that one unknown person set 12 fires in one community. Education and cooperation in law enforcement to the end that the number of fires started is reduced greatly, must be obtained before the Mississippi Forestry Commission can conduct its work on a satisfactory basis."

"National Fire Prevention Week, October 9-15, 1938, presents an opportunity for every person to help reforestation through fire prevention because forests mean continued employment and wealth in Mississippi."

LAMOUR AND MILLAND HEAD "HOLIDAY" CAST.

One of Hollywood's best-liked romantic teams, Dorothy Lamour and Ray Milland, join forces with an equally famous comedy pair, Bob Burns and Martha Raye, to bring to the screen a new kind of musical romance in "Tropic Holiday," which is to be at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday. And if most of the spectators do not depart immediately for Mexico, distance must be blamed, and not Paramount, which has reproduced the most charming locale of the season.

Set to the rhythm of clicking castanets and merry marimbas, "Tropic Holiday" is the disturbing adventure of a restless young Hollywood writer in unspoiled rural Mexico. The author, played by Milland, and his secretary, Miss Raye, find the land of the Aztecs far more romantic than they expect when he sits under the palm trees with a native daughter, Miss Lamour, and she listens to the sweet nothings of a local serenader, Tito Guizar.

The story reaches a merry climax with the arrival of Milland's Hollywood fiancée, Binnie Barnes, and Miss Raye's sweetheart, Burns, an Oklahoma Senatorial candidate. Burns' frantic efforts to win Martha land him in the local jail, from which he is released only after his lady turns matador and fights a bull to appease the populace.

In the "Tropic Holiday" cast are some of Mexico's most popular entertainers, many of whom are now seen on the American screen for the first time.

"Tropic Holiday" boasts six outstanding musical numbers, written especially for it by Augustin Lara, Mexico's most popular composer. They are unique in combining the touch of the native rumba with the swing of America's best-loved hits. Those destined for widespread popularity on the airways and dance floors are: "Tonight Will Live," "The Lamp on the Corner," "My First Love" and "Tropic Night."

Into the heart-catching story of their lives come the men who make and break their careers—Michael Whalen, Tom Beck, Douglas Fowley, Walter Woolf King and Jed Prouty.

CHADDY'S CHATS FROM HOLLYWOOD

THE kindness and generosity of her school chums, brought happiness and the chance for fame to thirteen year old Leni Lynn. This talented girl, whose real name is Angelina Ciofani, signed a contract with MGM studio only a week after she arrived in Hollywood on a visit made possible by the 10,000 dimes of her school chums' Leni Lynn is the daughter of an Italian factory worker in Passaic, New York.

Whether Robert Taylor or Ferdinand Gravel should play in the new film version of "Scaramuche" may soon be the question to be debated. "Scaramuche" was once made by the old Metro organization with Ramon Novarra in the title role with Lewis Stone and Alice Terry, directed by Rex Ingram. It would be quite a break casting Taylor in the role of this type after the more or less rugged impersonations he has been lately allotted. Gravel had been strongly mentioned for the film, but seems less suited for the part unless decided changes are made in the new version. Frank Morgan and Virginia Bruce might also be assigned to the Columbia film, "Golden Boy" quest had assumed international proportions since the Clifford Odets' play opened in London. Applications from abroad now number several hundred. Thursday is Golden Boy Day at Columbia studio. This day is devoted to the examination of would be "Golden Boys" and the applications considered of sufficient merit are selected for a screen test.

Olivia De Havilland sleeps on a pillow stuffed with rose petals. She has them treated to retain the softness and fragrance. Eddie Syracuse is a twelve-year-old vet. The young actor currently in "Angels With Dirty Faces" made his screen debut in "Dr. Bull" ten years ago with the ever popular Will Rogers.

Rosiland Russell isn't taking any chances that her love letters will become the property of the public. The star, now in "Four's A Crowd," with Errol Flynn, is studying shorthand to confuse and interest parties into whose hands future romantic correspondence might fall.

Anita Louise carried a small mouse foot for a good luck charm.

Jean Arthur and Cary Grant are congratulating each other on the choice of Sidney Buchman to write the screen play of "Our Wife," in which they will costar. It was Buchman, who wrote the sensational "Theodora Goes Wild," which marked Irene Dunne's debut as a comedienne.

Smart Fashions Advocated by the Stars: Hollywood film stars revealed the true fall touch at the opening football game of the season. Mingling with the spectators, the feminine contingent displayed the great use of fur for trimming as an integral part of their costumes. Striking examples of what the younger crowd are wearing were Nan Grey and Anne Shirley. Nan wore a black wool two-piece dress. The front panels of the short jacket were black and white pony skin. Her hat was of black felt and her accessories were black to accent the striking suit. Anne wore a suit of black wool with Persian lam pockets set high on the front of the jacket. She wears matching fur mittens with a pouch for the four fingers and an inset for the thumb. Her hat was a high black felt with an added interest of height of black quill feathers. A surprising note which Miss Shirley added to her costume was a tight bouquet of fresh red carnations.

ST. STANISLAUS BAND REORGANIZED; RATED IN CLASS "B" SECTION

Two Baton Twirlers Shine In Football Games

The Saint Stanislaus Band has once more been fully reorganized. Under the able direction of Brother Romuald, the band for three years a State Champion, Band of Division C, should uphold its well established reputation.

This year the band has been placed in Class B, as the enrollment of the high school division of Stanislaus has passed the quota set by the Mississippi High School Music Association, for Class C bands.

The band at its present state is made up of 39 members as compared with 27 at this time last year and 33 at the close of the past school session. It is at its largest since it has been established.

There are now two drum-majors strutting in front of the Scarlet uniformed band. George Comeaux, from Baton Rouge is the new drum-major. Jack Landry from Alexandria is the regular leader. Comeaux holds the title of second place in Louisiana, which he earned in the 1938 Louisiana State Band Contest.

The two drum-majors have new uniforms consisting of a hat, coat and trousers and two batons each. Both twirl two batons and made a very popular hit in their appearance at the head of the band in Biloxi, at the Biloxi-Stanislaus football game.

Due to the increased number in the band new uniforms have been purchased. They are capes of a bright scarlet color and caps to match. The band in uniforms makes a flashing picture as it parades down the gridiron at the halves of the games.

Four appointments have been fulfilled so far by these well drilled music-makers. They led a procession for the local Eucharistic Congress on September 18, played at the Stanislaus-Leakesville football game and paraded for the celebration of the passing of four measures taken up by the Municipal government of Bay St. Louis. On Friday, the group journeyed to Biloxi to add a flash of color and spirit to the Biloxi-Stanislaus game. The Stanislaus Band was highly complimented on all of its undertakings and promises to uphold these compliments.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaRose have returned from New Orleans, where they spent several months and are again domiciled at their attractive home in the vicinity of North Beach and Leonhard avenue. The Lucy family, occupants of the premises since the early summer, have returned to their home in Houston, Texas.

—Mrs. Alice C. Buckley has been appointed supervisor, WPA nutrition project for Hancock County and has entered upon her duties over the county in a manner that well stamps her suitability to the responsible trust.

Mrs. Buckley will supervise for the government every school lunch room in the city and county coming under the head and working of the project. Experience, and backed with marked ability, the duties of her all-important office will receive the fullest extent of attention and efficiency.

—And now soon will come the decision locating the community center and recreation hall, pier and bathing beach as well as harbor for smaller vessels. This is no yacht club building nor proposition of that kind but a community affair and there is no doubt it will be properly located, in the center of the city, central to all things at not any extreme end of the city. A writer of a communication sent The Echo, signed "Voter," says the enterprise should be located where the bulk of the people pay taxes, for after all, says the writer, the heaviest taxpayers will carry the load. The Echo has every confidence in our Mayor and his associates and the improvement will no doubt be well located and free from exposed storm hazards. Too much money invested to take a chance. We are reliably informed some people voted against the proposition thinking "it was another of those yacht club propositions."

Mississippi's Largest Satsuma Orange Crop Ready to Move.

The Satsuma orange growers in Pearl River, Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties, Mississippi, are now making preparations to harvest the largest crop in the history of the state. The actual picking of this golden fruit will begin in about two weeks and the harvest will continue to about January first.

The Satsuma Orange is generally recognized as about the most delicious of all the citrus fruit. Aside from its golden color, generous amount of delicious juice and being practically free of seeds, that easy-to-peel nature of the Satsuma makes it the more a favorite. Because of this nature it is known as a "Kid Glove" orange for the reason that it can be eaten without removing or soiling the gloves. The Satsuma is well-liked by dealers everywhere because of its exceptionally good shipping qualities.

A large portion of the rail shipments of Mississippi Satsumas move into the mid-western market. The past few years the truck lot buyers have been securing an increasingly greater proportion of the crop, selling over Mississippi and the other lower Mississippi Valley States.

What is said to be the largest Satsuma plantings in the United States are owned by Mr. L. O. Crosby of Picayune, Mississippi. As an idea of the immensity of these plantings, Mr. Crosby sold last year a sufficient number of Satsumas that each man, woman and child within the State of Mississippi could have enjoyed one full dozen of these delicious oranges—and there will be more this year.

Mississippi State College Shows Largest Attendance In School's History

State College, Miss., Oct. 12.—More students are attending Mississippi State College today than at any time during the school's 58 years of operation.

Registration officials announced a total enrollment of 2080, topping last year's registrations by 77. They state that late registrations would probably increase this figure.

By schools, engineering heads the list with 563. The other four undergraduate schools rank as follows: Agriculture 487; Business, 404; Education, 353; and Science 221.

The four year old Graduate School, with 56 students, shows an increase over last year's enrollment. The freshman class leads with 575, and the junior class is second with 525, due to a large increase of junior college graduates.

Sophomores number 478, seniors, 427, and special students 23.

BIBLE CLASS MEETING

Mrs. Warwick Aiken will hold a monthly Bible Class which will meet on the fourth Tuesday of every month at 3:30 o'clock in the Parish Hall of Christ Church. The public is cordially invited to attend. The next meeting will be October 25th.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER.

Coach W. K. Bosarge of Bay High School left Sunday for Tupelo, Miss., to visit his wife and a brand new cheerleader. The little lady was born during the week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blaize and little daughter Catherine, left for their home in Dallas, Texas, after a short but enjoyable visit with Mayor and Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, parents of Mr. Blaize. This delightful family will visit in Memphis, Tenn., and other points of interest before returning home.

—Fire at 1:30 o'clock last Monday morning practically destroyed the single one-story frame dwelling in St. John, near Necaise avenue, occupied by Sam Cooley and his wife, who were away and none of their effects were saved. The building valued at $1500.00 was owned by Ed. T. Keller, insured for $500. Cause of the fire is unknown. Due to the promptness in which the city fire department responded buildings adjoining were saved from damage and probable destruction.

STADIUM IMPROVED WITH MORE LIGHTS AND BLEACHERS

As the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws encountered the Mt. Olive Pirates last night, the new lighting system and new grandstands were put into use for the first time.

In place of the old lights, which consisted of two one-thousand watt bulbs on sixteen poles situated along the side-lines, three one-thousand watt bulbs were placed on the same poles. These new lights greatly illuminated the playing field.

The old bleachers have been raised four feet from their former elevation and propped up on sturdy piles, making the field clearly visible from all parts of the stands. A protective bannister has been placed completely around the new bleachers to lessen the danger of any serious injuries caused by falls. A special section has been erected for the St. Stanislaus student body and members of the school band.

This is only one of the many and much needed improvements that have been made by Brother Peter since his return to St. Stanislaus.
